

WHOLE WHEAT

The truth is simple...just simply not known.

A PUBLICATION FOR BIBLICAL UNDERSTANDING

The Mystery of God

Jesus Christ is coming, and you will see proof of this by observing world events. Jesus said when you see certain things occur, you will know prophecy is being fulfilled.

At the end of this age, God's wrath will be against all nations of the earth. His judgment will be with all peoples of the earth. Never before, since the days of Noah, has the whole earth been judged. Since the flood of Noah, God has dealt personally with those He has chosen. In the past, God dealt with one nation or one city, judged it and destroyed it. Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns around them were judged. Many nations were totally annihilated by God as a result of their sins from which they would not repent.

But now is the time when the Lord will judge the nations of this earth. How will this be done? First of all, let us discuss the objectives of the Lord. The Lord must determine who will repent and who will not repent. To accomplish this, He will proclaim to the world the true kingdom of heaven message which explains in detail how a person is to repent. The Way of repentance is called the Way of righteousness (Matt. 21:32).

Jesus Christ's message and John the Baptist's message were the same as the message that must be proclaimed to the world before the Lord judges the nations. This message proclaims that the kingdom of heaven within is entered through repentance (Matt. 3:2;

4:17; Luke 17:21). It commands you to bring forth fruit—good works—showing that you are repentant before God (Col. 1:10; Acts 26:20). You repent and turn to God by performing works

Inside This Issue...

- The Mystery of God 2
- The Mystery of Jesus 6
- The Mystery of the Everlasting Covenant 8

Learn more about when the Lord is coming here.

Listen to the audible version of this newsletter here.

Text underlined in blue is a link to more information.

wholewheatonline.com

The Mystery of God

for the reason of repentance. These works are not for salvation because salvation cannot be earned by any good works. But at the same time, you cannot enter the kingdom within and be converted, or overcome, unless you repent and become involved in a life of doing good for God (Titus 3:8). You serve God by serving others and you seek God by doing good (Rom. 3:11-12; Mark 9:35).

The Lord will determine who are the sheep who serve others for God's glory, and who are the goats who won't serve others even though they know this is the Lord's desire.

Once again, before He returns, the Lord must distinguish between the one who will serve Him and the one who will not. This is how the righteous and the wicked will be distinguished (Mal. 3:18). The Lord will determine who are the sheep who serve others for God's glory, and who are the goats who won't serve others even though they know this is the Lord's desire (Matt. 25:33-46).

Even Jesus did not live to please self but to serve others (1 Cor. 10:24; Rom. 15:3). He took on the form of a servant and He came as our example.

The unconverted continue to live for self and practice selfishness. They remain uncaring, uncompassionate, uninvolved, unloving, uncharitable, unkind and unstable in their lives. The converted practice kindness, charity, love, compassion and forgiveness one to another. They put other people's comforts before their own. Even Jesus did not live to please self but to serve others (1 Cor. 10:24; Rom. 15:3). He took on the form of a servant and He came as our example (Phil. 2:7). We are to imitate the way

Jesus lived and discipline ourselves for the purpose of living godly lives (1 Tim. 4:7). The word discipline comes from the word disciple, and living for the Lord is a discipline, as much as any sport.

Deception:

Jesus said cleverly devised gospels would be preached in the last days and if possible, even the elect of God would be misled (Matt. 24:24). The elect are the people the Lord Himself is calling in the last days. Jesus said there would be a false christ and false prophets or preachers who would come in the end times with carefully devised messages, designed to mislead those who could be misled.

Satan does not use his own gospel, but distorts the true gospel so that he deceives all who do not study the gospel of God to show themselves approved by God.

What is their cleverly devised message, and what makes it so deceptive? Always keep in mind that Satan is an impostor. He is a deceiver, extortioner and mimicker of the true message. Satan does not use his own gospel, but distorts the true gospel so that he deceives all who do not study the gospel of God to show themselves approved by God. Many people do not study the Bible because they say they cannot understand it. This is a lie from their satanic natures causing them to give up before they even start. The word of God calls it one of the schemes of Satan, because Satan has many tricks up his sleeve. After all, he is the author of "trick-or-treat."

Satan's message has great similarities to the true message of the word of God.

Satan's message has great similarities to the true message of the word of God. Satan's message is that of a kingdom on this earth. A group of his dedicated servants will politically and economically bring about the one world kingdom (government) on this earth. Before they have even finished, they will place in power a man they call the Christ. He is not Jesus Christ, but a man described in Revelation 13:17-18, which states that the number 666 is the number of a man.

The Mystery of God

And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast.

The beast is not a political system, but a man who is the beast! On his head are blasphemous names (Rev. 13:1). This man calls himself by the names Eternal Father, the Ancient one, the Alpha and Omega, the Creator of heaven and earth, the Ever-living one, and many other names that belong only to the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. This man presents himself as God (2 Thess. 2:4). He is coming in accord with the activity of Satan. Yes, it is indeed Satan himself in a specially-made body, in physical form. This body will appear and feel human, but it is not a human body at all. This is why the word of God says in Revelation 13:3, "I saw one of his heads as if it had been slain, and his fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast."

He will claim he is God returned to this earth for his children. However, the true God of heaven and earth has only allowed Satan and his followers to reign for three and one-half years.

The people of the earth will not realize they are worshiping the dragon, Satan, because Satan will give his authority and power to the beast. The people of the earth will say, "Who is able to make war against him, for he cannot die? He is immortal." He will claim he is God returned to this earth for his children. However, the true God of heaven and earth has only allowed Satan and his followers to reign for three and one-half years (Rev. 13:4-5). Jesus Christ Himself will throw this false messiah into the lake of fire when He returns (Rev. 19:20; 2 Thess. 2:8). Satan's followers claim that their Christ is going to lead the world for the next 2,000 to 2,500 years.

Jesus tells us we are not to go after these religious charlatans, or we will be religiously misled.

There is something terribly wrong, however, with Satan and his followers. They are divided. Jesus said if Satan's kingdom is divided, it cannot stand (Matt. 12:25). Satan's kingdom is divided by competition, ego, strife, jealousy and all the deeds of the flesh mentioned in Galatians 5:19-21. His ministers compete with one another. They constantly devise traditions of men that set their congregations apart from those of their fellow humans. Jesus said there would be false christs—plural—showing that there is division in Satan's ranks (Matt. 24:24). Jesus tells us we are not to go after these religious charlatans, or we will be religiously misled (Luke 21:8; 2 John 9-10).

Yes, the true message of the kingdom of heaven is the very message Satan himself imitates, distorts and misquotes.

Facts from the word of God about the true kingdom message:

Jesus Christ was born of a woman to be a king (Luke 1:31-33). His kingdom will have no end. There will be no end to the increase of His government (Is. 9:6-7). The kingdoms of this literal earth will be the kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ, and He will reign on this earth (Rev. 11:15; 20:4). He who overcomes and keeps Jesus Christ's works (the works He showed us to keep), and he who endures to the end will rule the nations of this earth with Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior (Rev. 2:26).

The Mystery of God

Those who overcome will be kings and priests and will reign on the earth, not in heaven.

Those who overcome will be kings and priests and will reign on the earth, not in heaven (Rev. 5:10; 1:6; 20:6; 11:17). Jesus Christ must reign on this earth until He has put all His enemies under His feet (1 Cor. 15:25). The last enemy He will abolish is death. Sin is death, and the soul that sins will die (not continue to live), declare the sacred Scriptures of God, which cannot be broken (Ezek. 18:20; Matt. 10:28).

Death is also personified as an angel. Revelation 9:1 says, "I saw a star from heaven that had fallen to earth." This star was Satan, the god with a thousand names. The angel's name is Abaddon, and in Greek his name is Apollyon or Apollo, the god of ancient Greece. Some of his other names include Hermes, Jupiter, Jove, Saturn, Poseidon, Atlas, Easter, Isis and Diana.

When the God of heaven is finished using Satan, he will be thrown into the lake of fire.

Satan is worshiped as a hermaphroditic god, both male and female. When the God of heaven is finished using Satan, he will be thrown into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:10). Satan is personified as death and Hades in Revelation 20:14. Satan's fate is also prophesied in Ezekiel 28:18-19 and Isaiah 14:12-20.

Satan is jealous of God. He wants to be worshiped as God.

Satan is jealous of God. He wants to be worshiped as God. He wants to rule this earth with a rod of iron. He wants to destroy the people of God who worship the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Moses. The Bible is the history of the true worshipers of God and the false pagan worshipers of Satan. Down through the ages, Satan worshipers have worshiped in secret and perpetuated the mystery of iniquity by keeping it a mystery religion. Satan worshipers believe with all their hearts that Satan is the true God and that Jesus Christ is the god of darkness, a cruel and inhumane god who advocates the killing of helpless animals and the eating of their flesh.

The kingdom of heaven that the Satan worshipers are adamant about bringing to this earth, is the one-world government, with a one-world religion and with a one-world army. When they succeed, they will have ushered in the pagan golden age. There was a golden age of Babylon, a golden age of Egypt, a golden age of Tyre, a golden age of Greece, and a golden age of Rome; but the God of heaven utterly destroyed them all. Yes, this will be the final resurrection of the unholy Roman Empire.

At this time Satan is working to unify the world.

At this time Satan is working to unify the world. He will succeed in his attempt for a one-world government and a one-world religion. The religions of the world will continue to worship God the way they see fit, but they must receive the mark on their right hand or their forehead and receive the first initiation (Rev. 13:16-17).

At the end of this age, Jesus Christ will return to this earth and destroy Satan's government.

At the end of this age, Jesus Christ will return to this earth and destroy Satan's government. He will then set up his kingdom and the Lord will be King over all the earth (Zech. 14:1-9). The whole world will worship the Lord of hosts at Jerusalem (Zech. 14:16-17). Read Isaiah 2:1-4, Micah 4:13; Psalm 99:1; Psalm 100:1; Psalm 97:1; Psalm

The Mystery of God

96:1-2; Psalm 93:1-2 and Psalm 87:1-3. After reading these prophecies about the Lord's future rule on this literal earth, there should be no doubt in anyone's mind that Jesus is coming here and we are not going there. We shall be resurrected here to reign with Him here on this literal earth (Rev. 2:26-27). That is what God's holy word says in so many prophecies throughout the Bible.

Tragically, many will not discipline themselves to study His word.

Tragically, many will not discipline themselves to study His word. They would rather have their own personal beliefs, which often are a hodgepodge of thoughts and notions collected over the years from others who don't know any more about the subject than they do.

Let God and His word be true, but let every man be found a liar (Rom. 3:4).

When a person believes something contrary to the word of God, then he must repent and believe the gospel, or he is antichrist. Let God and His word be true, but let every man be found a liar (Rom. 3:4).

Only those who are zealous and enthusiastically obeying God will be chosen by God to escape what is coming upon the whole world, and to stand before the Son of God.

It doesn't matter to a follower of Jesus Christ whether he lives or dies. For to live is to live for Christ, and to die is to die for Jesus Christ, as thousands have done in the past (Rev. 6:11). Only those who are zealous and enthusiastically obeying God will be chosen by God to escape what is coming upon the whole world, and to stand before the Son of God (Rev. 3:10-14; Luke 21:36—KJV; Zeph. 2:3; Mal. 3:17).

Long ago God pronounced His righteous judgments that He said He would perform at the end of the age.

Remember always, this is not a conspiracy. This is God's judgment on a sinful world. Long ago God pronounced His righteous judgments that He said He would perform at the end of the age. Those judgments are here now, and you will soon realize what they are.□

The Mystery of Jesus

When Jesus Christ asked His disciples who they thought He was, Simon Peter said, “Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Jesus said this knowledge was revealed to Peter by the Father who is in heaven (Matt. 16:16-17). What did the Apostle Peter know that was so shockingly true it had to be revealed by the Father in heaven?

The Jewish nation believed in a Messiah, which means Christ. They also knew and believed there was only one Messiah—one God and not two. Scripture after Scripture in the Old Testament affirms that the Lord is one God and not two. The pagans of long ago believed there were plural gods and plural saviors. The pagans believed God lived in everything and everybody, which is true but not a complete thought on the subject.

If no one knew of the Father but Jesus, then how can some people say they so much about a God they don't even know?

There is an angel called Satan who masquerades as God and indeed, Jesus called him the god of this world. However, Satan is an angel and is not immortal. He is very concerned because he knows he only has a short time left before he is incarcerated for 1,000 years, then released for a short time and ultimately destroyed for good (Rev. 12:12; 20:1-3, 7-10). So now we know with certainty that angels do not have immortality, or they would indeed be like God. It is not only pagan to think of angels as being immortal, it is also a spiritual lie from Satan and it blasphemes the word of God.

With this background of truth, let us return to the subject of Jesus the one Christ, Jesus the one Messiah and Jesus the one Lord.

The Father in heaven is a spirit. A spirit does not have flesh and bones as Jesus had when He returned after His death and resurrection (Luke 24:39). The word of God says no man has seen the Father at any time (John 6:46; 1 John 4:12).

Only Jesus, who is from the Father, has explained Him (John 1:18). Jesus was with God from the beginning (John 1:2). If no one knew of the Father but Jesus, then how can some people say so much about a God they don't even know?

Jesus knows all men and what is in man (John 2:24-25). He knows we are evil sons and daughters of the devil, and evil from our youth (Matt. 7:11; Gen. 8:21).

The pagans of long ago as well as the pagans today say man is born basically good with God in him. God's word makes it abundantly clear that we are not born good, but evil. It is also very clear that we do not have God's Spirit in us, but we have the spirit of the god of this world in us from birth. We are held captive by Satan's spirit to do his will on earth and not God's Will as it is being done in heaven (2 Tim. 2:25-26). It is evident from Scripture that only when you show love for Jesus Christ by keeping His words will Jesus and the Father make their abode inside you (John 14:23-24).

He says He will disclose Himself to the individuals who keep His commandments.

Jesus makes another astounding proclamation in John 14:21. He says He will disclose Himself to the individuals who keep His commandments. This is the very same disclosure that was made to the Apostle Peter in Matthew 16:16-17. Jesus warned His disciples that they should tell no one He was the Christ (Matt. 16:20). Do you suppose there is another meaning to the words “the Christ” than what is popularly believed today?

Jesus taught that He was the Son of the living God, the Lord, the Messiah, the Christ. Yet He told His disciples not to tell anyone. It would certainly seem that something hidden was revealed to Peter. Apparently, man can't know something that has to be revealed by God Himself.□

Letter From the Editor

Dear Whole Wheat Readers,

PSSSST...wanna know a secret? Tell me, tell me, I promise not to tell anyone! Humans love a mystery and a secret. That's why we have so many secret societies, clubs, fraternities and sororities, the list goes on and on. Yet, one of the biggest secrets, or mysteries, throughout the ages is the mystery of God. That is why the Bible is one of the best selling, and most studied, books in the world because it holds the mysteries, or the keys, to God's kingdom.

When I started my quest over 40 years ago to find my purpose in life, I spent thousands of dollars going to a Christian college, reading hundreds of Christian books, and traveling to Europe as a missionary. All in search of finding the answer to...why am I here and what is my purpose in life? I know I am here for something. These questions would go unanswered, even when I would ask my professors, because they didn't even know!

I wanted to know what it was like to walk with God, as Enoch did (Gen. 5:24). What was it like to meet God, face to face, as Moses had (Ex. 33:11). I longed for an intimate relationship with God (Prov. 3:32). These were all mysteries to me, yet, I had a very strong desire in my heart to know the answers and understand (Is. 37:4,5).

These questions were answered when I met the founder of Whole Wheat. The first night we met and talked, he answered my questions by showing me the Scriptures with the truth of God's word. I was shocked by how simple the answers were. However, I was very skeptical. He challenged me to start putting into action what he was showing me from Scripture, the very next day. By the end of that next day, putting the Scriptures he showed me into practice, I returned to him to tell him, "I just lived the best day of my life!" Now I knew why I was here! I had proven it to myself, putting God's Ways into action and I've been living it ever since (Gen. 18:19).

Scriptures point out that it's not until we practice the truth, that we come into the light or the understanding of Scriptures (John 3:21). That was true for me (Eph. 2:10). There had been a veil over my eyes, as there is over mankind (2 Cor. 3:14-15). I found out what The Mystery of God is and finally understood The Mystery of Jesus. Jesus was God Himself, in the flesh, sent to give us an example of how God wants man to live (John 13:15). This is done by serving others for God and having Christ's nature formed in us, which is true repentance (Gal. 4:19). On top of this, I learned about The Mystery of the Everlasting Covenant, which, I never even knew about, in all my studying and college courses. Boy, was that the icing on the cake! I learned how to enter into God's covenant and have an intimate relationship with God (Ps. 25:14).

Have all of my questions been answered? Yes, and no. Yes, all of the questions that plagued me for years have been answered, in regards to my purpose and why I am here. No, concerning God's new heaven and earth. There are wonderful treasures yet to be discovered, but that is one of the wonderful aspects of living for God (1 Cor. 2:9). It's a quest for hidden treasure (Matt. 13:44). Yes, we all love a mystery and love solving them too, but half the fun is in getting there, and that's what wholewheatonline.com is for. It's not just about discovering the prize, it's about the journey.

In His Love,

Scott

To support this life-changing work you can donate using a credit card via the button below:

DONATE

The Mystery of the Everlasting Covenant

What is a covenant? Sometimes it is referred to as a will or testament. The Bible has an Old Testament and a New Testament. The Old Testament contains the old covenant, and the New Testament contains the new covenant. The old Will of God was the Law of Moses. The new Will of God is the new covenant of Christ.

What is a covenant, will or testament? It is a legal, binding contract in which two or more parties engage. If we, the first party, agree to stop sinning through repentance, by glorifying the Father in heaven with good works (Matt. 5:16), then God, the second party, agrees to give us complete amnesty, not holding any past transgressions against us (Rom. 3:25; 1 John 1:9; 2:2; 4:10). We will receive a complete pardon. We will be reconciled to God and will come out from under the wrath of God and we, through God's grace, will inherit eternal life as a bonus (John 3:36). But this is all dependent on whether or not we live a new life for Christ, and begin to practice righteousness for God daily toward others, and overcome evil by doing good for God in Christ's name (Col. 3:17; Col. 1:10; Psalm 37:27).

The everlasting covenant was made with Abraham and it is in force for 1,000 generations. A thousand generations is 30,000 years, which means the everlasting covenant is still in force today (Gal. 3:17). Yes, the covenant God made with Abraham is still in force, and Moses' Law, which came 430 years later, does not in any way nullify the promise of the everlasting covenant (Gal. 3:18). A promise is not a law; it still remains a promise (Gal. 3:29). If you belong to Christ, you are Abraham's offspring, and you are heirs and recipients according to the promise of that covenant.

God says if we repent and live our lives to please Him daily, by keeping His Ways of practicing righteousness toward others daily and being just in all our dealings with others, He will bless us in this lifetime and give us the free gift of eternal life; and the blood of Jesus will cleanse us from all sin (Heb. 13:20-21; 1 John 1:7; 1 Peter 1:2). That is the everlasting covenant.

How can you pass up such a glorious promise? If you keep the new covenant by living a new life for Christ, by keeping Jesus' sayings, which is keeping the Ways of the Lord, the Lord will keep His part of the covenant by forgiving your sins. Then, the blessings of the Lord will come and overflow your life, and you will be given eternal life as part of that everlasting covenant.□

SUBSCRIBE

EMAIL US